

Transport, Urban Planning and Economics Laboratory (LAET)

The Transport, Urban Planning and Economics Laboratory (LAET-UMR CNRS 5593) is a research laboratory specializing in questions concerning transport, mobility and territory, chiefly focusing on two disciplines:

- economics,
- urban planning and urban studies.

Apart from ENTPE, the LAET is also attached to Lyon 2 University and to the CNRS, both of which are members of the University of Lyon.
