

The Students Welcome Desk: a one-stop desk for welcoming international students

Every year at the start of the academic year, the Université de Lyon sets up a one-stop desk for welcoming international students: the Students Welcome Desk. The goal? To help them get their studies off to a good start and facilitate their integratio

The multilingual team at the Students Welcome Desk provides information and guidance to students on administrative procedures, particularly visas and residence permits, as well as on all the assistance and support services.

>> More information about the Students welcome desk